

GET BACK TO INVESTING IN YOUR STAFF WITH QUALITY CPD THEY'LL SEE THE VALUE IN.

Have you had to put professional development on hold these last couple of years? You're not alone.

Many primary schools have struggled to find the time and resources to provide quality CPD for their staff due to the challenges and limitations brought about by the pandemic.

But if now's the right time for you to start looking at staff development again, we can help.

Our experienced consultants offer a comprehensive, accessible and affordable programme of webinars, training, consultancy and CPD for primary school staff.

From getting started with assessment and reporting, to analysing your statutory assessment and subject leader updates, there's a whole range of quality courses available from our expert team.

CONSULTANTS YOU CAN TRUST

When it comes to CPD, training and consultancy, you need to be confident you're getting quality courses from professional consultants with experience and credentials you can trust.

The team here at Juniper includes STA moderators, former headteachers, classroom practitioners and wider education advisers with years of experience in primary schools, so you can be sure you're getting advice and guidance you can rely on.

Here's a spotlight on two members of our team:

Jane Downes
Teaching and Learning Adviser,
Moderation Manager

Jane has been an adviser for over 20 years and is an experienced teacher having taught pupils of all ages in the primary phase for over ten years with a specialism in assessment and maths.

Jane also has a number of years experience as a subject expert for Ofqual and worked with the DfE as a numeracy consultant with an accreditation as a consultant for Improvement in Primary Mathematics.

Currently Jane, provides training and support to schools on all aspects of assessment and is the Moderation Manager for KS1 and KS2, managing the statutory assessment process in Oxfordshire. She also provides in-school support for moderation of judgments in all subjects and all year groups based on schools' individual tracking systems.

Kathy Ewers
Teaching and Learning Adviser

Kathy has been an adviser for over 14 years, joining Essex County Council in 2008 as one of the leaders of the Every Child A Reader Programme.

Prior to that she was a class teacher, music teacher, specialist reading teacher, SENCo, English Lead and Advanced Skills Teacher. Her experience covers children of all school ages from 3-19 years.

Kathy's main area of expertise is supporting primary schools in teaching the national curriculum for English. She has been a key stage one and key stage two moderator and is an accredited trainer for a number of literacy interventions including FFT Wave 3 Literacy, Write Away Together and Inference Training.

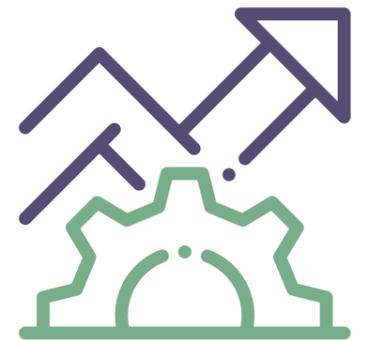

Currently Kathy provides training and support to schools across all aspects of the Primary English Curriculum with particular specialism in phonics and early reading. She also delivers Safer Recruitment Training and SEND training for governors.

FLEXIBLE COURSE DELIVERY TO SUIT YOU

We offer a wide range of options from group/individual school sessions online, via webinars so you don't have to travel and take too much time out of the classroom, to in-school face to face sessions completely tailored to your needs.

"The impact of high-quality PD (professional development) on student attainment compares to the impact of having a teacher with ten years' experience rather than a new graduate."

“As a leader and as a headteacher, we must recognise that staff are the most precious resource that we have in the school.

If you're going to improve the outcomes of students, and the day-to-day offer that you give students, that needs to be done through staff who are open, reflective and looking to improve their practice.”

Pepe Di'lasio, President, Association of School and College Leaders and Headteacher, Wales High School, South Yorkshire
